RCFY Executive Director Celeste Clark, opened the meeting. Allyssa White asked if anyone at the meeting were willing to write a note to the Elementary School or Middle School students welcoming them back to school. She passed out note paper and collected them at the end of the meeting.

Congressman Chris Pappas then presented the Coalition with a Certificate for 20 years of Service to the Community. After the presentation he staying for a few minutes to answer any questions from the attendees. There was plenty of discussion regarding the need for affordable housing and mental health services.

Celeste then passed out information on the Deerfield Fair, Thunder Run and Exeter Adult Education.

There was then a review of the Asset Mapping that was completed at the August meeting and asked if there were any additional names or services to add to the list.

There was a list of updates and volunteer opportunities:

- Suicide Prevention month resources.
- Disc Golf opening day, September 18th
- Recovery month awareness
- Red Ribbon Week 10/21 thru 10/29/22
- DEA Medication Take Back - October 29th at Hannaford
- Annual Prevention Summit, October 28th at Derryfield Country Club

Thank you for joining us today, being an RCFY advocate, passing along the information learned today, and encouraging others to learn more and get involved.
